Lattice Wins Multiple 2024 Globee® Cybersecurity Awards for Security Solutions and Leadership

March 14, 2024

HILLSBORO, Ore.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Mar. 14, 2024-- Lattice Semiconductor (NASDAQ: LSCC), the low power programmable leader, today announced that it has been recognized with multiple 2024 Globee Cybersecurity Awards. The Lattice Sentry™ solution stack won a Gold award in the 'Embedded Security' category, Lattice SupplyGuard™ service won a Silver award in the 'Software Supply Chain Security' category, and the Lattice Security Seminar series won a Bronze award in the 'Thought Leadership in Strengthening Cyber Resiliency' category.

"In today's rapidly evolving digital landscape, the importance of cybersecurity and cyber resiliency cannot be overstated. At Lattice, we are committed to helping our customers future-proof their applications and systems with a robust portfolio of security-equipped solutions," said Eric Sivertson, VP of Security Business, Lattice Semiconductor. "We thank The Globee Awards for once again recognizing our commitment to delivering advanced security solutions and resources that enable our customers to add more protections to their designs."

The Globee Cybersecurity Awards recognize cybersecurity companies and professionals for their innovative approaches and effective solutions in ensuring security in the digital age. The awards cover various categories and the program aims to raise awareness about cybersecurity issues and honor those who have made significant contributions in protecting organizations and individuals from cyber threats.
